

Juliet has validated that her departure from a traditional career path was worth every struggle that ultimately shattered glass ceilings along the way.

Juliet is The Burgess Law Group's Founding Partner and the Arizona Representative for the Federal Bar Association's Labor & Employment Law Section. Juliet's been named "Rising Star" and "Super Lawyer" (Southwest Super Lawyers), "Outstanding Woman in Business" (Phoenix Business Journal), "Women Achiever of Arizona" (Arizona Capitol Times), and "Business Angel of the Year" (AzBusiness Magazine). Juliet has validated that her departure from a traditional career path was worth every struggle that ultimately shattered glass ceilings along the way. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Arizona Foundation for Women, Arizona Women Lawyers Association, and Friends of the Phoenix Public Library. Juliet, the mother of three, still follows the advice of her father shared with her as a competitive gymnast: "keep working hard, and your time will come." Her time is now, and she is taking every woman to the top with her.
